Project Title: Integratron

The Integratron is a building designed by a UFO-ologist capable of rejuvenation, anti-gravity, and time travel. I want to design a single-page scrolling website, which will be possible with the hefty images from the wikipedia site.

- Introduction
    - Top of the page; sets a quriky tone
- Construction
- Claims
- Modern Uses (most of the content will be focused here)
    - Popular culture
    - Music
    - TV
    - Movies
